New York, Oct. 19-21 p. m. The steamer Crescent City arrived this morning. She left New Orleans on the 11th, and touched off Havana at day-light on the 14th. The Captain of the Port of Havana went aboard, and inquired, "If the obnoxious Smith was on the vessel?" and was answered, "Yes." He then said the Captain of the Crescent City could have no communication with or from the shore. Numerous guard-boats, with police officers, were stationed around the steamer.

Captain Porter, of the Crescent City, then gave his protest against the proceedings to the American Consul, and sailed for New York, without landing either passengers or mails.

Passing Moro Castle, he fired a salute, and hoisted the American flag.

These have been specially prepared to meet the universal want of scholars in emerging from the Infant Class to the

These books take up all the most important portions of Scaipture history, and furnish both question and answer in appropriate language.

The following particulars characterize the books in questions.

The answers are very brief, and printed in large type.
 The subjects are judiciously selected, running through the whole Bible.
 As they furnish both questions and answers, the pupil is saved from the necessity of having more than one book in hand at a time—a very desirable arrangement for young scholars.

THE WEEK : comprising the last day of the week, the first day of the week, the week completed. By the author of "The Commandment with Promise."

Thills is an excellent volume, in which are illustrated the advantages of a holy observance of the Sabbath. Various characters and scenes in humble life are introduced, and dialogues sustained, all drawn naturally and effectively. Such a book would do much good, if the humbler classes of society could be induced to read it. The pictorial illustrations are remarkably well executed.

May 4, 1852.

To Messre. Mortimer & Mosobray:

Dam Sins: In justice to Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tinture, I wish to inform you that I was taken sick on the 3 day of January last, with an affection of the stomach, bo els, and kidneys. I was attended by four eminent physicians for more than two months—all to little or no effect. had some knowledge of the great virtue in Hampton's Tinture from one bottle which my wife had taken two yearsince.

since.

I came to the conclusion that I would take no more medicine from my physicians, but try the Tincture; and I am happy to inform you I had not taken it two days before I felt its powerful influence upon my stomach. I have continued using the Tincture, and am now able to leave my room, and can cat any common diet without much inconvenience or pressure on my stomach.

The afflicted or their friends are daily visiting me, to learn of the great virtue there is in this Tincture of Hampton's. I expect to send you several certificates in a few days—on especially from a young lady who has been confined to he room twelve months, with a disease of the head, affecting the brain.

he brain. Respectfully yours, E. W. HALL.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray:

Dear Sins: I am happy to inform you that this day finds me in the enjoyment of good health, by the use of your Hampton's Tincture and the blessing of God. I am enabled to pursue my daily avocations as usual, and I have a great desire that the afflicted should know the great curative powers of the Tincture.

I am, with respect, yours,

E. W. HALL.

THE ALMOST MIRACULOUS CURES made by Hamp on's Vegetable Tincture on our most respectable cit ens—men well known and tried—we challenge the wor' o show anything on record in medicine to equal it. Man undreds who have felt its healing powers bear the same test hundreds who have felt its healing powers hear the same testimony.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray: Gents: Last September I was attacked with srysipeles, from which a dreadful ulcer formed on my right leg. Getting better of this, last November I took a deep cold, which led to what my physician told me was billious pleurisy, which left me with a constant, deeply-seated, and painful cough, having no rest day or night, and constantly throwing up from my lungs a thick matter. I became much emaciated, growing weaker every day, and keeping my bed the greater part of the time. My friends thought I had the consumption, and at times I was also of the same opinion. At this stage of my disease, after having tried many and various remedies, without success, a friend advised me to try DR. HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC-TURE, and procured me a bottle, which I now pronounce the greatest medicine I ever took. Before I had taken half the contents of one bottle I felt much improved; and now, having taken but two bottes, my cough and pains have entirely left me, and I am enabled to attend to business. I can truly say that, with the blessing of God, I have been restored to the health I now enjoy by the use of this most invaluable medicine.

Mestrs. Tyler & Adair: I have been afflicted with Rheumatism, at times, from my twelfth year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe as to render me helpless; I have tried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back, and hips; I could not rest, day or night; I could not move any part of my body without crying with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, in ternal and external, without receiving any relief; I was at last advised to try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE; before I had taken one bottle of which I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stomach strengthened and revived every way; I have taken five bottles, and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need it, and would recommend it to the afflicted, believing it unequalled.

REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N. Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear Sir: While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, dizziness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

WESLEY AND HIS COADJUTORS.

WESLEY AND HIS COADJUTORS.

SELDOM have I taken up a book of biography with which I have been so well pleased and really profited as with Wesley and his Coadjutors, by Prof. Larrabee. Those pure pages sparkle like diamonds, with strange as well as beautiful incidents, touching in turn every chord of the human heart, and arousing its latent energies to deeds of noble daring. Wesley is exhibited as he really was, a most wonderful man; wonderful principally as an agent of Providence in reviving pure religion in the world.

The second volume opens with Charles Wesley, that prince of lyric poets, who is made to pass before the reader so well-defined that he seems to see his form and hear his voice, and be thrilled with hissublime hymns, a rich legacy left to the Church in all after time.

Whitefield, the peerless orator and devoted Christian, next appears, with his matchless powers, arousing Greet Britain and America with an eloquence and unction that Britain and America with an eloquence and unction that Britain should be of their religious teachers—plants of right-course forsaken of their religious teachers—plants of right-courses were seen springing up and adorning the garden of the Lord. John Fletcher closes the list of notable worthies in the two volumes before us, and every way worthy is he to do it. He is made to pass along in his own incomparable, beautiful simplicity, with a holiness all but superhuman, possessing talents that an angel might have enviet; the acutest and ablest controversialist writer of his own or any subsequent age.—Zion's Herald.
